

Lecture Notes: Introduction to Distributed Systems

1. Replication and Consistency models guarantee state agreements.
2. Vector clocks are used to capture causal relationships in messages.
3. Raft uses leader election and consensus to replicate logs safely.
4. Paxos is another consensus algorithm but is harder to implement.
5. Byzantine fault tolerance handles arbitrary failures including malicious actors.